Exposure without active symptoms

Symptoms regardless of exposures

Employee or medical student

Discuss exposure level with employee and determine if meets CDC HCW guidance definition of exposure*

Meets criteria

Are you working remotely or are you non-critical to clinical operations?

Yes

Self-quarantine and test with RT-PCR approximately 5 days after exposure

No

Go back to work with mask and test with RT-PCR approximately 5 days after exposure

Refer to RTW guidance after results obtained

Employee or medical student

Self-quarantine and refer for testing. If very sick, proceed to nearest ER.

Does not meet criteria

No further testing or quarantine indicated, RTW and continue to wear mask and self-monitor for symptoms

Exposure without active symptoms

 Symptoms include: fever, conjunctivitis, cough, sore throat, difficulty breathing, diarrhea, headaches, body aches or lack of smell or taste

Residents and Fellows can be referred to Jackson Employee Health